AmSECT and JaSECT COLLABORATION

As of this year, AmSECT and JaSECT are pleased to introduce a brand-new collaboration! Celebrating years of partnership, shared goals and strategies, this new arrangement provides the following benefits to JaSECT members:

- Newly discounted international membership rates and new benefits packages with pricing based on the World Bank economic definitions. AmSECT's three new international categories (Full International, Limited International, and Guest International) range in cost from $0 (FREE) to $125 (FULL) and benefits include:
 - Discounts on AmSECT's annual International Conference registration rates
 - Access to special pricing of AmSECT's certification exams: Perioperative Blood Management Technologist (PBMT), Patient Blood Management Specialist (PBMS), Certified Adult ECMO Specialist (CES-A) and Certified Pediatric ECMO Specialist (CES-P). Information on these certifications can be found at <https://amsect.org/certification>
 - Subscription to AmSECT's THE BEAT newsletter, AmSECT's quarterly journal, AmSECToday, free access to all AmSECT University online education modules, and application access to AmSECT's Leadership Symposium.

To benefit our societies, our work forces and, ultimately, our patients, we have renewed and formalized our pledge to assist each other when requested with calls for task force participants and conference presenters while continuing to explore new ways that we can work and grow together.

If you are interested in joining AmSECT at the discount international membership rate, or have any questions, please email blakef@ewald.com.

As always, we greatly value our global partners and eagerly await all that the future will unfold as we continue to share and support.
